

Shareholders Organization Chart

HENCO SOLUTIONS

20.03.2021

1

Henning Borgersen

Serial entrepreneur, used to be one of Europe's biggest distributors of mobile phones, many years of experience within the maritime world. Former owner of 24 firms worldwide with 110 employed. Turnover in 2005, 5 billion dkr.

"HENCO SOLUTIONS ApS is unique to me as the company holds the necessary culture and skills to bring our common dreams alive. By bringing our networks together, we can make HENCO SOLUTIONS ApS a massive success."

Colin Wilcken

With more than 30 years of entrepreneurial experience in various industries, Colin has always sought to identify new business opportunities and partnerships. He has been involved in the production and supply of biodegradable cleaning products to the maritime industry where the seas and oceans have been recipients of endless pollutants. One customer, the French Navy (NATO), has taken this danger into account and begun to set the example by replacing those harmful products with better ones. More recently, he is part of a team helping to introduce new methods of capturing clean, potable water with the least amount of environmental impact possible.

Jan B. Sommer

Business Developer, have with success in corporation with bigger companies such as DanTransport, DFDS, DSB, IØ-Foundation, developed and been CEO for the companies Let Line Shipping Company, HOMEbase Furniture, House of Asia.

Jan Sommer is today board member in several National and International successful companies where his force is development and network.

HOUSE OF ASIA A/S is a Danish Research and Development company that are working closely together with Danish Technologic University and Danish Technologic Institute in the process of developing sustainable products for the benefit of the Nature. Pending patents are a result of this science. The vision - do not supply anything to the Nature that not already are there.

Jens Ravn

Jens Ravn has worked as an account for 40 years. He has been a state-authorized public accountant since 1985.

He has been a shareholder in Martinsen I ca. for 25 years; an auditing firm with about 150 employees.

Today Jens is the owner of the Huset Ravn A/S, where he works as a consultant board member to many of his clients. He is also a shareholder in the Henco Group.

Further business experience includes strategy development, financial- & liquidity management, company transfer and network and partnership development.

Franck Legras

Franck is a thermal engineer and the holder of several patents. He has had extensive and professional experience in the management of industrial sites including Evian.

Apart from the development of Fluides-Concept's Aquathetys, he works almost daily on different pilot projects for the chemical, space and armament industry. He is also a technical consultant for several national and international companies which are leaders in the field of thermodynamics and industrial and trans-critical refrigeration.

Jean Lordet

Jean is a strategy consultant and an IT specialist. He is the founder of a medical software and imaging management company which has become the leader in French and Swiss market.